The open enrollment period is August 2, 2023 through September 1, 2023. No plans will be allowed mid-year except for qualifying events (marriage, birth, adoption, divorce, legal separation, death, change of employment status, termination of employment, cobra time limit, and loss of other coverage or significant change in other coverage).

Employees desiring to enroll in the Pittsylvania County School’s health plan effective October 1, 2023, should complete a health application. Health application and information can be found on the PCS KeyNet (Payroll Portal) and in the office of each school. The completed health application should be returned to Dawn Perkins at the School Board Office prior to September 1, 2023.

Current employees presently covered under the Pittsylvania County School’s health plan will remain under the same plan unless notification is received from the employee indicating otherwise. Employees who desire to change their existing coverage should complete a new health application and return to Dawn Perkins prior to September 1, 2023.

Employees wishing to drop their health plan coverage should notify Dawn Perkins in writing prior to September 1, 2023.

For enrollment or other questions, please contact Dawn Perkins at the School Board Office at 434-432-2761, ext 5025.
